stands, and it is certainly a pretty kettle of fish. Every one appears to have the greatest horror of taking the initial step in this affair. The Board of Stewards first took up the matter, but the only thing that body did was ask Starter Caldwell to fix the period of Bergen's suspension. This Mr. Caldwell re-fused to do, and then the Board of Stewards calmly shifted the burden over to the shoulders of the Board of Control. Every once in a while this Bergen-Caldwell squab. ble crops up and is carried on with increase

A San Francisco despatch says the partnership between Freddy Gebhard and Mrs. Langry, otherwise known as the "Jersoy Lily," has been dissolved. It will be remembered that a few years ago Mrs. Langry and Gebhard visited California together.

The noted English actress was enraptured with the climate, and a spot was purchased for a breeding restablishment. Mr. Gebhard had quite a string of throughbreds, and Mrs. Langry purchased several of her own, and the stable was combined in one. "Dec" Abbey, the well-known trainer, was left in charge of the horses.

The couple left for the East and Abbey continued to care for the stable. Recently Trainer Abbey received orders from Mr. Gebhard, it is said, to turn adrift from the Gebhard ranch all of the thoroughbreds owned by Mrs. Langtry. The trainer refused to obey the order. The stock was valuable, and to turn it loose would simply be a piece of idiocy. He notified Mrs. Langtry's attorney and the latter journeyed from the East to the Lake County ranch. Suitable quarters were provided and the stock was removed.
